DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

1. Claims 1-17 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-26 of U.S. Patent No. 6,622,024 B2. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because:

Limitations of claims 1-3 of the current application are encompassed by claim 1 of U.S. Patent Number 6,622,024 B2.

Limitations of claims 4-17 of the current application are read by claims 2-15 (respectively) of U.S. Patent Number 6,622,024 B2.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 18-29 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The present invention relates to a system and method which controls outer loop transmit power for transmission power of an uplink/downlink communication in a wireless communication system. The system receives a communication from a base station and determines an error rate on the received communication. The system then distinguishes between static and dynamic channels, produces a static adjustment value, and characterizes the dynamic channels to generate a dynamic adjustment value. The target power level is then adjusted by the static and dynamic adjustment values, setting the transmission power level.

The instant application is directed to an non-obvious improvement over the invention described in Pat. No. 5,987,020 to Abe. The improvement comprises a receiver in a wireless communication system where a user equipment (UE) produces a target power level based upon received signals which it communicates to a base station from which the signals are received, which controls outer loop transmit power for transmission power control of an uplink/downlink communication and receives a communication in the form of a series of communication segments from a base station, comprising an error detection device for determining whether an error is present in a transmission time interval (TTI); and a processor in communication with the error detection device, the processor for generating the target power level which is communicated to said base station and analyzing the received communication within first and second composite windows.
